

Help improve mental health support for children and young people across Lincolnshire

Share your thoughts on emotional wellbeing and mental health services for children and young people in Lincolnshire. Your feedback will be used to transform and improve services, ensuring they get the right support, in the right place, at the right time.

Take the survey at www.letstalk.lincolnshire.gov.uk

or scan here

Your voice counts!

Have your say before Sunday 18 December

